Now And Then

by Sean Grennan – directed by Craig Dixon

Sundays in February - The Basement Theatre

Sometimes what happens after last call just might change your life. One night in 1981, just as Jamie is closing the bar where he works, a desperate last-minute customer offers him and his girlfriend Abby two thousand dollars to sit and have a drink with him. Who wouldn't take it? As the trio swaps stories and Jamie considers the decisions he faces about his musical career and his future with his girlfriend Abby.

Programmed for our ever-popular February Fundays month of Sundays season, Now and Then is a heartfelt romantic comedy about the costs of the choices we make, and the people who make them with us.

Boy

by Anna Zeigler – directed by Fiona Ziff

3-13 February - The Basement Theatre

Inspired by a true story, Anna Ziegler's BOY explores the tricky terrain of finding love amidst the confusion of sexual identity, and the inextricable bond between a doctor and patient. In the 1960s, a well-intentioned doctor convinces the parents of a male infant to raise their son as a girl after a terrible accident. Two decades later, the repercussions of that choice continue to unfold.

This production offers audiences a sensitive and powerful narrative that explores the intersections of identity and society, promising an unforgettable theatrical experience

Hollywood Gold

conceived and directed by Lee Kennedy

with accompaniment by Nicky Rosengren

May - Dates and Venue to be confirmed

Transport yourself to the glitz and glamour of Hollywood's golden years with an enchanting evening of song, style, and nostalgia. Featuring timeless classics from the 1920s to the 1940s, this cabaret show brings the silver screen to life. With razzle-dazzle jazz numbers and heartfelt ballads that defined an era, prepare to be swept off your feet in a celebration of vintage Hollywood magic. Grab your seat and let the golden age shine again!

The Female of the Species

by Joanna Murray Smith – directed by Julian Smith

Sundays in August - The Basement Theatre

Inspired by real-life events, Joanna Murray-Smith's The Female of the Species is a biting comedy that takes a sharp look at feminist ideals, the complexities of motherhood, and the unpredictability of human relationships. When Margot, a celebrated feminist writer, is held at gunpoint in her own home by a former student, the situation spirals into a hilarious and tense standoff involving her daughter, son-in-law, and an unexpected cab driver. As the characters clash, the play explores the chaos of ideology, family dynamics, and personal responsibility.

This production promises audiences a witty and thought-provoking exploration of modern feminism, delivered with Murray-Smith's trademark sharp dialogue and dark humour.

2025 Community Musical:

Watch This Space - The SoACT

Community Musical returns in 2025.

Directed by Michael Mitchell

22 September - 6 October 2025 - Wagga Wagga Civic Theatre

In 2025 The Wagga Wagga School of Arts returns to the mainstage of the Wagga Wagga Civic Theatre to deliver what will be the community musical of the year. Licencing arrangements mean that we can't announce say too much just yet, but suffice to say that the show that's coming in 2025 is adventurous, high-energy and laugh-out loud funny and it's music and story will stick with you long after you leave the auditorium.
